Latest Quotations in the Portland Markets

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

PORTLAND, July 23.—The presence in Portland of D. L. Yakkogin, of Vladivostok, and announcement of the nature of his business here, attracts considerable interest. Portland merchants have known for years that the Russian Pacific seaport is the entrepot for large quantities of foodstuffs, fruits and manufactured goods shipped from this city for the Far Eastern trade.

Regular buyers for Russian houses are located in Portland, and steamers direct from this port and those sailing from Sound ports carrying cargoes of flour, apples, citrus foods and leather goods. With increased orders from Russia and prospect of enlarging the trade across the Atlantic through the new fruit line recently established, the future of Oregon apple business is bright indeed.

Eggs and Butter.

There continues to be a very good market for all concerned, in the egg market, prices being firm at 22c, which is considered reasonable to buyer and satisfactory to seller. In some quarters a half cent is named on top of the generally accepted figure. Ranch eggs are not coming in sufficiently to meet requirements, but the light receipts are being augmented by the Eastern goods, that sell side by side with the local eggs. No Portland storage eggs are being withdrawn, as far as could be learned.

Butter is firmer, though there are still very heavy receipts from usual sources of supply, and some from quarters new to this trade previous to this year.
